

Přednášku Zoltána Kövecsese Issues in the Diachronic Study of Metaphors si zájemci poslechnou ve středu 31. října

„In the talk, I will be concerned with three issues that all have to do conceptual metaphors from a diachronic perspective. Two of the issues will be responses to certain criticism of conceptual metaphor theory (CMT) and one involves a recent suggestion concerning the role of CMT in understanding the historical development of a language's lexicon.“
