

The Czech Studies Program at the Faculty of Arts, Charles University, Will Offer an Intensive Czech Course for Foreigners in January 2019

Do you want to improve the level of your communicative competence in Czech? Sign up for the Intensive Course that will take place on January 21 – January 25, 2019 (one-week course) and on January 21 – February 1, 2019 (two-week course).

In these courses, participants learn all necessary skills with an emphasis on oral communication and listening comprehension. Lessons are held in small groups in buildings of Charles University, Faculty of Arts in the centre of Prague. The course starts daily from 9:00 am – 11:55 pm and 12:30 pm – 13:30 pm. The number of teaching units is 25×45 minutes per week. We guarantee excellent teachers and an individual approach to each student. In a short time, you will have the opportunity to improve your command of the Czech language.

The deadline to register is January 11, 2019. The minimum number of participants to open the course is 5. The textbooks are not included in the tuition fee.

Tuition fee	Deadline for payment
One week: 4 500 CZK	by January 11, 2019
Two weeks: 9 000 CZK	by January 11, 2019

We look forward to working with you.

Application form