

Dr Františka Schormová Received an Award from the American Comparative Literature Association

Graduate of the Department of Anglophone Literatures and Cultures at CU FA, Dr Františka Schormová, received an honorary mention in the Bernheimer Prize awarded by the American Comparative Literature Association for her dissertation "African American Poets Abroad: Black and Red Allegiances in Early Cold War Czechoslovakia."

The American Comparative Literature Association, founded in 1960, is the principal learned society in the United States for scholars whose work involves several literatures and cultures as well as the premises of cross-cultural literary study itself. The Bernheimer Prize goes to the best dissertation nominated by a department or program.
