

Academic Qualifications

The professional development of academics – lecturers and associate professors – is one of the FA priorities aiming to ensure the continuity of the special character and high standard of individual departments and institutes. In compliance with the requirements of the Czech university system, academic staff can enhance their qualifications in habilitation and professorial proceedings.

- Habilitation
- Professorships
- Research Board