POLÉMOS - BELLUM
ARCHAEOLOGY OF CONFLICT IN THE ANTIQUITY

6. - 7. 12. 2018
GREEN HALL (C141) CLETNÁ 20, PRAGUE

Keynote: Raimon Graelis i Fabregat (RGZM Mainz)
Is it still useful to study ancient weapons? An approach from helmets and cuirasses

Liviu-Mihail Iancu (University of Bucharest)
Some reflections on the archaeological visibility of archaic Greek mercenaries

Hannah Leftiers Ringheim (University of Edinburgh / Oxford University)
The Journey Home: Archaic Mercenary Dedications Discussion

Poláková (Masaryk University Brno)
Interception of the earthquakes in archaeological contexts

Coffee break

Jakub Witowski (University of Wroclaw)
Near-Eastern impact on Greek warfare in the archaic period: innovation - adaptation

Alina Cioboară Iancu (University of Bucharest)
Textile Fabrics, Tools and Accessories as Weapons and as Metaphors for Combat in the Aegaean and Eastern Mediterranean

Amy Porter (University of Birmingham)
Contested or Connected Spaces? The Conflicting Relationship between the sanctuaries on the border of Arkadia and Lakonia in the Classical and Hellenistic periods. Discussion

Lunch break

Kerasia Stratioti (Hellenic Open University Athens)
Les épigraphies des héros grecs dans le champ de bataille

Andrea Salayová (Masaryk University Brno)
Magic as a solution to conflict in antiquity

Michaela Kellová (Charles University Prague)
Magic as a weapon Discussion

Coffee break

Martin Bača (Comenius University Bratislava)
„I challenge you to a duel.“ How the evolution of single combat changed warfare and redefined social inequality

Nikola Stefanovski (Max Planck Institute for Social Anthropology)
Construction of warrior identity through burial rites and its implication on communities

Ricarda Meisl (Independent researcher)
Aeschylus in Vietnam? – Experiencing battle in Aeschylus’ Persae

Discussion

Evening presentation: Harald Meller (LDA Halle (Saale))

End of the 1st day

Keynote: Antony Harding (Charles University Prague)

Filip Franković (Heidelberg University)
Another One Bites the Dust – Iconography of Defeated Warriors in the Late Bronze Age Aegean

Miloš Rohaček (Charles University Prague)
War in Arzawa? Overview of weapons in Western Anatolia in 2nd Millennium BC

Michal Smísek (Masaryk University Brno)
Interception of the earthquakes in archaeological contexts during period of conflicts on LM IB Crete Discussion

Coffee break

Giuditta Pesenti (University of Florence)
Built Tumuli in Northern Etruria between Orientalizing and Archaic Periods: a brief outline of the archaeological evidence and the Florence University’s researches in the Etruscan site of San Germano

Petra Janoučová (Macquarie University, Sydney)
Long-term trends in epigraphic production of Thrace Discussion

Eleni Tzovia (Independent researcher)
The war inside the war: Peloponnesian Conflict and the Stasis in Corcyra

Jakub Havlíček (Charles University Prague)
The End of the Old Order: Arrival of Hellenism in Baetica and its impact on the local settlement structure

Petra Cejnarová (Charles University Prague)
Art in conflict: Animal decorative motives on Achaemenid weapons and horse harness Discussion

Poster session

Coffee break

Fabiano Fiorello Di Bella (University of Messina)
Rappresentare Maratona nell’età dello stile severo: la megalografia della Stoa Poikile ad Atene e il donario fidiaco a Delfi

Pawel Golicyński (Jagiellonian University Kraków)
War of images – use of engraved gems for propaganda and self-promotion by Roman politicians, their circulation and response of society"

Miron Jurik (Masaryk University Brno)
Military conflict through the eyes of the Church fathers in 4th and 5th century CE Discussion

Final remarks

End of the 2nd day

Posters

Ioannis Mitsios (National and Kapodistrian University of Athens)
Mythical Athenian heroes in war conflicts

Jana Stančíková (Charles University Prague)
Textile production of middle Europe prehistory – first observation

Marina Zubajová (Charles University Prague)
An Eye on the Wing of a Demon as a Phenomenon on the Etruscan Relief Urns

Domínika Ferencíková (University of Trnava)
Milesian Colonization of northern Black Sea area in Archaic Period with island of Berezan and Olbia as an example

Óscar Bonilla Santander (University of Zaragoza)
Mythical Athenian heroines in war conflicts

Hannah Leftheris Ringheim (University of Wroclaw)
The war inside the war: Peloponnesian Conflict and the Stasis in Corcyra

Jakub Havlíček (Charles University Prague)
The End of the Old Order: Arrival of Hellenism in Baetica and its impact on the local settlement structure

Petra Cejnarová (Charles University Prague)
Art in conflict: Animal decorative motives on Achaemenid weapons and horse harness Discussion

Coffee break

End of the poster session

End of the conference

The conference was supported by the European Regional Development Fund-Project “Creativity and Adaptability as Conditions of the Success of Europe in an Interrelated World” (No. CZ.02.1.01/0.0/0.0/16_019/0000734).