

FACULTY OF ARTS
Charles University

– Workshop –

Archivio di Stato di Siena, Diplomatico, San Salvatore Monte Amiata, 5 agosto 1240

PEUPLEMENT ET TRANSFORMATION DE L'HABITAT EN EUROPE DANS LES SOURCES ÉCRITES ET LA DOCUMENTATION ARCHÉOLOGIQUE (11^E – 14^E SIÈCLE)

EUROPEAN TRANSFORMATION OF SETTLEMENT PATTERN IN ARCHAEOLOGICAL AND WRITTEN SOURCES (11TH–14TH CT.)

Prague

7th – 9th November 2019

The workshop is supported by the European Regional Development Fund-Project “Creativity and Adaptability as Conditions of the Success of Europe in an Interrelated World” (No. CZ.02.1.01/0.0/0.0/16_019/0000734) and affiliated with the programme of Charles University Progress Q07 ‘Centre for the Study of the Middle Ages’.

Thursday 7 November

9.15 Registration

9.30 Welcome

9.45–11.15 Panel 1

EMMANUEL HUERTAS, Université de Toulouse Jean-Jaurès
Les villages déplacés au Moyen Age. Une enquête à poursuivre

ROBERTO FARINELLI, Université de Sienne – ANDREA GIORGI, Université de Trente
Sources archéologiques et sources documentaires. Pour une approche multidisciplinaire d'un cadastre siennois du XIVe siècle : la 'Tavola delle possessioni' (1316-1320)

11.15–11.30 Tea/Coffee Break

11.30–12.15 Panel 2

ROLAND VIADER, CNRS Toulouse
Les structures du peuplement de la France médiévale : éléments pour une approche multiscalaire

12.15–14.00 Lunch

14.00–14.45 Panel 3

SAMUEL LETURCQ, Université de Tours
[en collaboration avec Elisabeth Zadora-Rio, Robin Cura, Elisabeth Lorans, Xavier Rodier, Cécile Tannier]
La dynamique d'occupation du sol entre 800 et 1200 en Occident. Tester des hypothèses par la modélisation multi-agents

14.45–15.00 Tea/Coffee Break

15.00–16.30 Panel 4

TOMÁŠ KLÍR, Charles University
Transformations of medieval landscape and rural society in the Czech lands

MARIA LEGUT-PINTAL, Wrocław University of Technology
"Ordnung muss sein" – problem of regular towns and villages research in medieval Silesia and Poland

16.30–16.45 Tea/Coffee Break

16.45–18.15 Panel 5

FILIP LAVAL, Institute of Archaeology of the CAS, Prague – National Heritage Institute, Prague

Kostel ou chasteľ? Quelques questions sur la structure de la société tchèque médiévale et sur la transformation de celle-ci.

SYLVAIN BURRI, CNRS Toulouse

Grasping the ephemeral from an historical and archaeological perspective. The example of seasonal agro-pastoral and craft-related temporary settlements in medieval and post-medieval Provence (France)

18.15–18.30 Discussion

Deserted Medieval Village of Spindelbach (North-west Bohemia), a building reconstruction

Friday 8 November

9.30–11.00 Panel 6

RAINER SCHREG, Universität Bamberg

The dynamics of village formation - a perspective from western central Europe

JAN HORÁK, Czech University of Life Science, Prague

Soil oriented environmental aspects of past settlement research on field systems

After 11.00 Lunch

Field excursion – Deserted Medieval Villages in the Black Forest
(depends on the weather)

<http://ruralia2.ff.cuni.cz/wp-content/uploads/2018/04/Jan-Klapste-Zdenek-Smetanka-The.pdf>

Saturday 9 November

9.00–14.00 Field excursion

VENUE:

Faculty of Arts, Charles University
Hybernská 3
Praha 1

CONTACT INFORMATION:

Tomáš Klír
Department of Archaeology
Faculty of Arts, Charles University

tomas.klir@ff.cuni.cz
+420 731 497 008

Emmanuel Huertas
Département d'Histoire
Université de Toulouse Jean-Jaurès

emmanuel.huertas@univ-tlse2.fr
+33(0)631679335

EUROPEAN UNION
European Structural and Investment Funds
Operational Programme Research,
Development and Education

